

Since Indiana adopted the current telephone privacy law my family has enjoyed peaceful time at home that couldn't be imagined before the enactment of the privacy law. We would receive from 3 to 27 sales calls per day. I would do without telephone service if I had to put up with that again!